STAT

STAT

STAT

STAT

STAT

STAT

STAT

STAT

JOURNAL.

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Wednesday - 24 January 1962

asked him to wait until we talked with him further. 4	telephoned saying that a friend of his had arged that the Director so who will be in Washington on Friday, 26 January. I in to Mr. Wilson that I doubted that the Director was in an appropriat	10 who will be in Washington on Friday, 26 January. I indicated to Mr. Wilson that I doubted that the Director was in an appropriate position to see however, I would check the matter and advise. 3. Talked with Frank Tavenner, HCUA, concerning the allegation that a Communist in CIA had been reported to HCUA. At this point, Tavenner said that they could not identify any such report to them. Again, he offered to subpoena but I STA asked him to wait until we talked with him further. 4. telephoned telephoned stating he had received a letter signed by James Kendall, of the Senate Preparedness Investigating Subcommittee staff, requesting any contribution he might have in the field of educating and alerting America to the dangers of Communism. This request apparently resulted from close STA personal friendship with Colonel Hartell, who is on the staff of the Subcommittee. Since is known to Hartell as CIA, I suggested STA discuss this with Hartell explaining that, of course, he could not respond	who will be in Washington on Friday, 26 January. I in to Mr. Wilson that I doubted that the Director was in an appropriat
to Mr. Wilson that I doubted that the Director was in an appropriate position to see however, I would check the matter and advise. 3. Talked with Frank Tavenner, HCUA, concerning the allegation that a Communist in CIA had been reported to HCUA. At this point, Tavenner said that they could not identify any such report to them. Again, he offered to subpoens but I STA asked him to wait until we talked with him further. 4. telephoned etating he had received a letter signed by James Kendall, of the Senate Preparedness Investigating Subcommittee staff, requesting any contribution he might have in the field of educating and alerting America to the dangers of Communism. This request apparently resulted from close STA personal friendship with Colonel Hartell, who is on the staff of the Subcommittee. Since is known to Hartell as CIA, I suggested STA discuss this with Hartell explaining that, of course, he could not respond	to Mr. Wilson that I doubted that the Director was in an appropriat	Atassal
Talked with Frank Tavenner, HCUA, concerning the allegation that a Communist in CIA had been reported to HCUA. At this point, Tavenner said that they could not identify any such report to them. Again, he offered to subpoens but I STA asked him to wait until we talked with him further. 4. telephoned stating he had received a letter signed by James Kendall, of the Senate Preparedness Investigating Subcommittee staff, requesting any contribution he might have in the field of educating and alerting America to the dangers of Communism. This request apparently resulted from close STA personal friendship with Colonel Hartell, who is on the staff of the Subcommittee. Since is known to Hartell as CIA, I suggested STA discuss this with Hartell explaining that, of course, he could not respond
Talked with Frank Tavenner, HCUA, concerning the allegation that a Communist in CIA had been reported to HCUA. At this point, Tavenner said that they could not identify any such report to them. Again, he offered to subpoens but I STA asked him to wait until we talked with him further. 4. telephoned stating he had received a letter signed by James Kendall, of the Senate Preparedness Investigating Subcommittee staff, requesting any contribution he might have in the field of educating and alerting America to the dangers of Communism. This request apparently resulted from close STA personal friendship with Colonel Hartell, who is on the staff of the Subcommittee. Since is known to Hartell as CIA, I suggested STA discuss this with Hartell explaining that, of course, he could not respond	position to see nowever, I would check in a matter and advise concerning the allegation that a Communist in CIA had been reported to HCUA. At this point, Tavenner said that they could not identify any such report to them. Again, he offered to subpoens but I STA asked him to wait until we talked with him further. 4 telephoned stating he had received a letter signed by James Kendall, of the Senate Preparedness Investigating Subcommittee staff, requesting any contribution he might have in the field of educating and alerting America to the dangers of Communism. This request apparently resulted from close STA personal friendship with Colonel Hartell, who is on the staff of the Subcommittee. Since is known to Hartell as CIA, I suggested STA discuss this with Hartell explaining that, of course, he could not respond		**
concerning the allegation that a Communist in CIA had been reported to HCUA. At this point, Tavenner said that they could not identify any such report to them. Again, he offered to subpoens but I STA asked him to wait until we talked with him further. 4 telephoned etating he had received a letter signed by James Kendall, of the Senate Preparedness Investigating Subcommittee staff, requesting any contribution he might have in the field of educating and alerting America to the dangers of Communism. This request apparently resulted from close STA personal friendship with Colonel Hartell, who is on the staff of the Subcommittee. Since is known to Hartell as CIA, I suggested STA discuss this with Hartell explaining that, of course, he could not respond	3. Talked with Frank Tavenner.	HCUA.
HCUA. At this point, Tavenner said that they could not identify any such report to them. Again, he offered to subpose but I STA asked him to wait until we talked with him further. 4. telephoned stating he had received a letter signed by James Kendall, of the Senate Preparedness Investigating Subcommittee staff, requesting any contribution he might have in the field of educating and alerting America to the dangers of Communism. This request apparently resulted from close STA personal friendship with Colonel Hartell, who is on the staff of the Subcommittee. Since is known to Hartell as CIA, I suggested STA discuss this with Hartell explaining that, of course, he could not respond	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · such report to them. Again, he offered to subpoens but I STA asked him to wait until we talked with him further. 4 etating he had received a letter signed by James Kendall, of the Senate Preparedness Investigating Subcommittee staff, requesting any contribution he might have in the field of educating and alerting America to the dangers of Communism. This request apparently resulted from close STA personal friendship with Colonel Hartell, who is on the staff of the Subcom- mittee. Since is known to Hartell as CIA, I suggested STA discuss this with Hartell explaining that, of course, he could not respond	such report to them. Again, he offered to subpoens but
etating he had received a letter signed by James Kendall, of the Senate Preparedness Investigating Subcommittee staff, requesting any contribution he might have in the field of educating and alerting America to the dangers of Communism. This request apparently resulted from close STA personal friendship with Colonel Hartell, who is on the staff of the Subcom- mittee. Since is known to Hartell as CIA, I suggested STA discuss this with Hartell explaining that, of course, he could not respond	asked him to wait until we talked with him further.
stating he had received a letter signed by James Kendell, of the Senate Preparedness Investigating Subcommittee staff, requesting any contribution he might have in the field of educating and alerting America to the dangers of Communism. This request apparently resulted from close STA personal friendship with Colonel Hartell, who is on the staff of the Subcom- mittee. Since is known to Hartell as CIA, I suggested STA discuss this with Hartell explaining that, of course, he could not respond	* * * * * * * * * * * * * * * * * * * Preparedness Investigating Subcommittee staff, requesting any contribution he might have in the field of educating and alerting America to the dangers of Communism. This request apparently resulted from close STA personal friendship with Colonel Hartell, who is on the staff of the Subcommittee. Since is known to Hartell as CIA, I suggested STA discuss this with Hartell explaining that, of course, he could not respond he might have in the field of educating and alerting America to the dangers of Communism. This request apparently resulted from close STA personal friendship with Colonel Hartell, who is on the staff of the Subcommittee. Since is known to Hartell as CIA, I suggested STA discuss this with Hartell explaining that, of course, he could not respond of Communism. This request apparently resulted from close STA personal friendship with Colonel Hartell, who is on the staff of the Subcommittee. Since is known to Hartell as CIA, I suggested STA discuss this with Hartell explaining that, of course, he could not respond	he might have in the field of educating and alerting America to the	dancers personal friendship with Colonel Hartell, who is on the staff of the Subcommittee. Since is known to Hartell as CIA, I suggested STA discuss this with Hartell explaining that, of course, he could not respond mittee. Since is known to Hartell as CIA, I suggested STA discuss this with Hartell explaining that, of course, he could not respond discuss this with Hartell explaining that, of course, he could not respond		STA spend
·	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
	•

CIA INTERNAL USE ONLY Approved For Release 2004/03/18 : CIA-RDP64B00346R000100250021-5